August 21 Solar Eclipse

Clyde Public Library has joined more than 1,000 libraries across the country to participate in the celestial event of the century, the August 21, 2017 Solar Eclipse! During this national event, the shadow of the moon will sweep across the United States in a narrow band from the Pacific Ocean to the Atlantic Ocean in a spectacle that hasn't occurred in decades. In fact, the last total solar eclipse for the United States was nearly 40 years ago. The rest of the U.S. and North America will see a partial eclipse (Clyde will have a 75-85% eclipse), with the moon covering up only part of the sun. It is aptly named the Great American Eclipse.

This will be a great opportunity for our community to celebrate science, with fun, hands-on activities, and treats culminating in the eclipse event on August 21, 2017, at the Shelter House in the Clyde Community Park. All attendees will receive their own eclipse glasses so they may safely watch this celestial spectacle.

We have partnered with Carrie Harmon and Michelle Baker, science teachers at the Clyde Green Springs schools, to help our community prepare for this amazing astronomy event. We think people of all ages and backgrounds will find the solar eclipse to be an experience they will remember the rest of their lives.

Clyde Public Library is hosting the program at the Shelter House in the Clyde Community Park from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Our eclipse program is FREE, however, registration is required by calling 419.547.7174 or stopping by the Circulation Desk in the Library lobby.

Hidden Gems: Young Adult

Bog Child

by Siobhan Dowd

From Amazon (4.7/5 Stars): Digging for peat in the mountain with his Uncle Tally, Fergus finds the body of a child, and it looks like she's been murdered. As Fergus tries to make sense of the mad world around him - his brother on hunger-strike in prison, his growing feelings for Cora, his parents arguing over the troubles, and him in it up to the neck, blackmailed into acting as courier to God knows what - a little voice comes to him in his dreams, and the mystery of the bog child unfurls.

Ice

by Sarah Beth Durst

From Amazon: (4/5 Stars): When Cassie was little she thought her mother had been taken prisoner by trolls because of a deal she'd made with the Polar Bear King. Just a fairy tale to soothe a child whose mother had died. But on her eighteenth birthday, the "fairy tale" comes true when the Polar Bear King comes to take Cassie for his bride. Realizing she has the power to save her mother, Cassie makes her own deal with the bear and finds herself on a journey against time, traveling across the brutal Arctic to the land east of the sun and west of the moon. It is a journey that will teach Cassie the true meaning of love and family—and what it means to become an adult.

The Nine Lives of Romeo Crumb: Life One

by L. Rifkin

From Goodreads (3.92/5 Stars): In this award-winning book, The Nine Lives of Romeo Crumb: Life One, the secret world of cats is revealed in an epic tale of feline civil war starting with young Romeo, a stray who finds himself battered between two very different worlds. It's the domestic cats, the Sticks, against the street cats, the Alleys. As battle lines are drawn, warriors train for combat and a hero emerges to inspire a nation. The book also includes many original black and white drawings by artist/illustrator Kurt Hartman, including ten full-page illustrations.
