Homebound Delivery Service

For those patrons in the Library's service area who are disabled and unable to drive, we offer Homebound Delivery Service.

Being a part of the homebound service has many advantages. For example, you may request our Friday delivery service on a weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly basis. You may keep the items you have checked out for a longer period of time, and there are never any late fees.

On Fridays, library staff deliver library materials to those confined at home or in a nursing home. We have numerous items to offer including: books in regular and in large print, audiobooks, DVD's, magazines, and music CD's.

If you are legally blind, there are Talking Books for the blind that we can request for your enjoyment.

To be added to the Homebound Delivery Service, please call the Library at 419-547-7174 (NOTE: only for those patrons within the Library service area).

Rachel Henck, our new Adult Services Librarian!

We look forward to her classes and programs in the months ahead!

ILLUMINAE

by Amie Kaufman

"Ambitious, heartbreaking, and out-of-this-world awesome." —Kirkus Reviews starred review

"A truly interactive experience. . . . A fantastically fun ride." —MTV.com

"Star-crossed lovers fight for survival in this visually stunning adventure, the first in a trilogy and told through myriad documents and archived information, including instant messages, email, interview transcripts, memos, and security footage. Following a devastating attack on their home planet, Kady Grant and Ezra Mason, having just broken up, end up on different ships, part of a refugee fleet fleeing a cosmic dreadnought. Additionally, a virus is turning the survivors into bloodthirsty monsters, while one ship's murderous AI takes extreme measures to protect the fleet. Though separated, Kady and Ezra rekindle their relationship while everything collapses around them. What starts off as a spacefaring action-romance evolves into a nerve-wracking horror story as the true scope of the situation becomes clear. Kaufman (the Starbound trilogy) and Kristoff (the Lotus War series) offer a stylistically mesmerizing tale, where story and art are interchangeable, and words act as pictures. The more experimental sections may require extra effort on readers' parts, but the result is worth it." —Publishers Weekly starred review

"Kaufman and Kristoff have created a fast-paced, quasi-political sci-fi thriller that is completely unique." —Booklist starred review

Hidden Gems:

Adult Christmas Books

The Mitford Snowmen by Jan Karon (23 pages)

If you've ever been to Mitford in Jan Karon's novels, you know it's the perfect place to visit at Christmas.

In The Mitford Snowmen, everyone's favorite characters are filled with holiday spirit. And when a swirthing snowfall brings them to Main Street for a snowman-building contest, the spirit of competition comes alive as well. Will Father time and Uncle Billy's creation win the prize in Mitford's First Annual Snowman Jubilee? Will Percy and J.C. steal the show? And what's that wondrous smell of chocolate in the air?

Finding Noel by Richard Paul Evans (304 pages)

A heartwarming and inspirational Christmas novel in the tradition of The Christmas Box, Grace, The Gift, and The Christmas List. The New York Times bestselling author of The Christmas Box and The Walk series returns with a holiday novel of hope, love, and redemption.

A young woman, who has been adopted as a child by a loving family, has only a Christmas ornament inscribed with the word "Noel" as a keepsake of her birth family, about whom she remembers nothing. When long hidden memories resurface, she begins an emotionally challenging personal journey as she searches for her biological sister and clues about her mysterious past...

The Christmas Note by Donna VanLiere (208 pages)

Gretchen Daniels has recently moved into a condo with her two children to be closer to her mother, Miriam. She and her children are building a life together in a new community. A mysterious young woman, Melissa McCreary, lives next door to them. She has few possessions, little personality, and keeps to herself. One day a local landlord who is looking for Melissa knocks on Gretchen's door for assistance. Melissa's mother has died and in the coming weeks the landlord needs Melissa to empty her mother's apartment. Gretchen reaches out and offers to help Melissa, but the apartment is a gut-wrenching shambles of a home. There is little worth saving except for a few photos and a note that is discovered on the crate beside the bed. It is unfinished, but in the two scribbled lines Melissa discovers secrets about her family that she never could have imagined. Can two very different women embark on a journey that explores a long-buried need for forgiveness, hope, and redemption?
