

FIZZ, BOOM, READ! Readers of all ages will experiment and explore the science field this summer as the Clyde Public Library presents "Fizz, Boom, Read!" during our summer reading program. Activities may include science experiments, robot building, Grossology fun, nature explorations, and more. The 2014 Summer Reading Program is open to young people, preschool through young adult, with programs, prize drawings, Story Times, a reading club, and more. Families are invited to join the read-to-me portion of the program. The Clyde Public Library's program runs from June 9th – August 9th with registration starting Monday June 2nd. For more information, call the library at 419-547-7174 or visit our website, www.clydelibrary.org.

Summer Reading for Teens has a Really Big Prize Our summer reading program is called "Spark a Reaction", and there will definitely be a reaction when one lucky summer reader wins a $100 gift certificate to the store of his/her choice on August 11. Teens will receive one entry for the drawing for each book they read and review this summer. Books read previously or for school assignments are ineligible. Sign up at the Adult Services Desk starting May 12. First 25 to sign up get a bag 'o swag!

2014 Adult Summer Reading Program

Eureka! It's summer reading! "Literary Elements" is the theme of Clyde Public Library's 2014 Adult Summer Reading Program, combining science and literature in fun ways. Registration is not required. A prize will be given away each week for a total of ten prizes. There will also be a variety of fun programs where you can learn how to make your own lava lamp, discover how humans and bananas are similar, or become a kid again by making your own bouncy ball. Registration is required for the programs. The Adult Summer Reading Program will run from June 10 through August 20. For more information call the library at 419-547-7174. Become a mad scientist this summer and join the fun! All programs are free of charge.

Adult

S.P.L.A.T. Summer Public Library Activities for Teens will meet weekly this summer on Wednesdays from 3 – 5, just like during the school year. We will have planned activities for about one hour, and the rest of the time is for socializing, game playing, etc. There is no sign up required unless supplies are required for the activity or space is limited. There will be an events list coming out soon.

storytime

Weekly story time sessions are for preschoolers 2½ - 5 years old. The 30-minute sessions include stories, fingerplays, music, art, movement and language activities. No pre-registration is required and parents are welcome to participate in story time with their child.

BOOK BABIES

Sept. 11 - Nov. 20, 2014 10:30 - 10:50 a.m.
Book Babies is for infants through 24 months with a caregiver. Stories, baby games and musical activities create a playful learning experience for all. No registration is required.

Civil War programs at the Clyde Public Library

The Clyde Public Library has coordinated its May programming with Civil War Days at the Springs, sponsored by the Stemtown Historical Society, which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, May 17 and 18, at Elmwood at the Springs in Green Springs. On Thursday, May 8, at 6:00 p.m., the Second South Carolina Company, a Confederate reenacting group with members from the Clyde-Green Springs area, will talk about their "Adventures in Reenacting" and show some of their gear. Two members of the group, Jocelyn Smith and Dan Picking, will be married at Green Springs on Saturday at 4:30, after the Battle of Gray Goose Creek. On Thursday, May 15, at 6:00 p.m., historical interpreters for Generals McPherson, Carr and Garfield and for Colonel Hickenlooper, the Cincinnati engineer on McPherson's staff who was instrumental in seeing the statue of McPherson erected in Clyde, will discuss their Civil War careers, the battles that they were involved in, and take questions from the audience. The generals and the colonel will also be at Civil War Days in Green Springs. No reservations are required for either of these free programs.

Crazy Craft Days

Come and join in the fun glass etching, spring blooms and a bird house.

DIRECTOR'S PICK

"A Short Guide to a Long Life"
~ by David B. Agus, M.D.

"A Short Guide to a Long Life explores the simple idea that a healthy tomorrow starts with good habits today." -- Fortune

"The little volume contains Agus's starkest, most clear-cut prescriptions yet...in a field rife with caveats, Agus speaks with a ringing clarity." -- Wired

Cancer specialist Agus distills advice from his previous book (The End of Illness) into a simple set of rules for living wisely through healthy habits. His series of dos and don'ts advocate cultivating a measure of physical self-awareness in order to quickly note any changes in the body, as a means of preventing and detecting disease; consuming unprocessed, whole foods while avoiding artificial vitamins and supplements; and taking medications like statins and low-dose aspirin prophylactically. Agus also covers commonly accepted practices like maintaining a healthy weight, exercising, getting a flu shot, and complying with your doctor's advice, while not smoking, getting sunburned, or wearing uncomfortable shoes. The book closes with a checklist of checkups needed in each decade of life—another reminder of the self-knowledge needed for disease prevention. Little line drawings and a conversational, fatherly tone make this guide light and easy to follow -- Publishers Weekly

Staff Favorite from Lisa Trenter

Pandora internet radio is a free radio site/app that only plays music you like. Personalize your own stations using the name of a song, band or singer, genre of music, and even listen to your favorite standup comedians. You can have up to 100 stations. Once your stations are created, you can listen to just one station or listen to them all on a shuffle. "Thumbs up" or "thumbs down" a song and Pandora will play music based on your likes. There are occasionally ads, but if you want no ads, you may upgrade to Pandora One, which is $40 a month. You can listen to Pandora on your computer, tablet, or smartphone.
