In anticipation of the weather ahead, why not try our ALLDATA Online (In-Library Use Only) to get your vehicle in shape for the coming winter months?

ALLDATA Repair is the leading single source of manufacturers' diagnostic, maintenance, and repair information. And you can print out any information or diagrams you need to take home!

Original Equipment (OE) data is available for more than 22,000 engine-specific vehicles from 1982 to present. ALLDATA Repair is available during Clyde Library hours and is constantly updated. The OE repair information is never edited or redrawn and thousands of pages of data are added each year.

Benefits:

- OE images, diagrams and diagnostic flow charts
- Mode 6 data including PIDS, TIDS, CIDS and Scaling
- Manufacturer Technical Service Bulletins (TSBs) and
- Recalls-updated daily with ALLDATA Repair

ALLDATA Repair will help you cut down repair time, save on repair expenses and avoid expensive mistakes.

Access ALLDATA in the library by going to www.clydelibrary.org, clicking on "Research", "Databases", then "ALLDATA online".

Directors' Pick

Mycroft Holmes

by Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Anna Waterhouse

"Holmesians will find much to appreciate in the novel's depiction of a character whose mind is as keen as Sherlock's." -- Time.com

"The book is extremely well-written and well-researched, with layers of sensory detail and filmic tableaux...Doylean Easter Eggs are also sprinkled throughout and are presented with a witty subtlety that will delight longtime fans...Mycroft Holmes is a good book and an engaging mystery for Sherlockians and non-Sherlockians alike, but it's a particular delight for aficionados of the Doylean world. Here's hoping Abdul-Jabbar and Waterhouse write many more." -- Baker Street Babes

"Clear space on your new fiction shelf for this slam-dunk of a debut novel. Cowritten by NBA all-star and author Abdul-Jabbar (What Color Is My World?) and screenwriter and producer Waterhouse, the team behind the NAACP and Telly Award-winning documentary On the Shoulders of Giants, this latest collaboration brings a fresh voice and broadened scope to the Holmes canon. Historical fiction and mystery fans will be the first to demand this title, but its mass appeal is undeniable." -- Library Journal (starred review)

"Abdul-Jabbar, a Holmesian since his college days, joins forces with Waterhouse to offer a rousing mystery starring Sherlock's older (and smarter) brother, Mycroft, a rising star in the British government. The action begins in 1870 London but quickly moves to Trinidad, where Mycroft's closest friend, Cyrus Douglas, a native of the island, must travel to investigate what some believe is an infestation of douen—tiny supernatural characters who lead children into the clutches of werewolf-like lougarou. Mycroft joins his friend for the trip, and what the two find on arrival—after a near-fatal ocean crossing—isn't supernatural but far more harrowing... The authors hit all the right notes here, combining fascinating historical detail with rousing adventure, including some cleverly choreographed fight scenes and a pair of protagonists whose rich biracial friendship, while presented realistically, given the era (Douglas must sometimes pose as a butler), is the highlight of the book." -- Booklist (starred review)

Hidden Gems: Historical Fiction

Children and adults will enjoy these series books located in our Children's Department.

Dear America Series:

West to a Land of Plenty - The Diary of Teresa Angelina Viscardi - New York to Idaho Territory, 1883 by Jim Murphy

From School Library Journal - Gr 4-8--Italian-American Teresa Viscardi and her family travel to the Idaho Territory along with a number of other Easterners to settle in a town aptly named Opportunity. Her diary begins on the train that will take them to the Dakota Territory where they must then buy wagons, oxen, and horses to transport them across the rugged landscape. Teresa struggles to understand her father's decision to move thousands of miles from the home she loves, admires her mother's strength and courage, and accepts her younger sister Netta's persistence in reading and writing in her diary. . . .

So Far from Home - The diary of Mary Driscoll, an Irish Mill Girl by Barry Denenberg

My Name is America Series:

The Journal of William Thomas Emerson - A Revolutionary War Patriot - Boston, Massachusetts, 1774 by Barry Denenberg

From School Library Journal - Grade 4-8-This first-person account of a 12-year-old boy makes the world of Boston in 1774 come alive. William Thomas Emerson, an orphan, has found work with the kind proprietor of a tavern. In his journal, the boy describes the practical and moral difficulties that citizens of that city encountered on the eve of the Revolution. He writes of food shortages, patriots, traitors, and deserters, and describes daily life, public punishment, and medical treatments. . . .
